

SILICONE SPRAY

Lubricant spray

DESCRIPTION	HARTOL SILICONE SPRAY is a specialized lubricant and protective agent designed for the maintenance and preservation of plastic and rubber components.
APPLICATION	It is suitable for lubricating household components, such as hinges and guide rails. Additionally, it protects electrical contacts from moisture.
PROPERTIES	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• prevents gaskets from freezing and provides long-term protection• enhances flexibility and restores shine• eliminates squeaking and creaking noises at material interfaces (plastic, rubber, and metal)• extends the lifespan of treated components• colorless, odorless, and resistant to water exposure• operating temperature range: -50°C to 200°C• can be applied at various angles; equipped with a 360° valve
TYPICAL PROPERTIES	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Color• Density, g/cm³• Aerosol pressure, bar	Transparent 0.71 5.2
